INDIGNANT INDIANIAN.

THEY WANT THE ALLEGED ELEC-TION FRAUDS SIFTED.

The Tally sheets, Poll-Books and Ballots in the Hands of the Clerk of the United States Court—Morgan's Case—Henry Watterson's Views on the Recent Elections.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 10.—A number of representative citizens called upon Judge Woods, of the federal court, Monday morning and urged that the frauds connected with the late elections in this city be taken up at once by the grand jury. The court sent for the district attorney, but learned from that official that the grand jury docket had already been made up, that a large number of witnesses were in the city from different parts of the state and that any change from the order laid down would necessarily lead to great expense and inconvenience. It was then agreed that the tally sheets, poll-books and ballots should be placed in the hands of the clerk of the United States court, and this was done Monday afternoon, the district attorney taking the keys of the outer doors of the safe and the clerk keeping those of the inner ones. This precludes the possibility of either entering the safe unless the other is present. There is an earnest determination upon the part of the citizens to people to sift this matter to the bottom, and while the evidence upon which the committee is acting is known to be few, it may be regarded as sufficient to give the parties a good deal of trouble and possibly a trial.

An examination of the records of the secretary of state's office shows that Cornelius Morgan, the Democratic candidate for the legislature, elected from Vigo county, was elected a justice of the peace last year, and received his commission in April last, and Monday the Republican committee received from him a certified copy of his bond and oath of office, both of which were made soon after receiving his commission. The constitution expressly provides that "no person holding a judicial office shall be eligible to any other office during the term for which he shall have been elected, except it shall be a judicial office." Thus a judicial officer may be a candidate for another judicial office during the term for which he was elected, but for no other. The decisions in this state have all been in accordance with the rule, and it is understood to be the meaning and intent of the clause.

HENRY WATTERSON RETURNS.

The Great Journalist Has a Few Words to Say About the Election.

New York, Nov. 10.—Henry Watterson arrived in New York from Havre on the steamer La Bourgogne Monday as ruddy and fresh as a school boy. Regarding the defeat of Mr. Morgan, Watterson said that it was not to be laid to the tariff question.

There had been no change in Mr. Mor-gson's position, or views of the tariff, but he believed that there had been a disaffection among the Democrats in Mr. Morgan's district, due solely to the disappointment with the results of a Democratic administration, and that disaffection was not by any means, he admitted, confined to Mor-gson's district. The narrow escape of Mr.
Carleton from defeat, Mr. Watterson said, was merely an accident. The opposition to him was regarded as of no serious consequence. The defeat of Frank Hunt, in the Toledo district, Mr. Watterson attributed solely to personal opposition to Mr. Hunt because of his practical non-residence in the district which he sought to represent. Mr.
Watterson was inclined to regard the Labor vote with respectful wonder.

A Mistake in the Poll-Books.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 10.—A mistake in the poll-books by which it would appear that the recent elections were held Oct.
2 instead of Nov. 2, threatened to invalidate the vote and throw the election of state senator from this district into the legislature.
The supreme court of this county has ordered the election commissioners to meet here Thursday and swear to the correctness of the vote and thus avert the contest.

Frauds in Michigan.

DETROIT, Nov. 10.—Complaint has been made to District Attorney Black of open election frauds at Lansing, the complainants professing to have incontrovertible proofs.
The United States grand jury brought in thirty indictments Tuesday morning, and after they have been disposed of the election frauds alleged in this city and Lansing will be taken up.

Wise Men Have Gone.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—A Washington dispatch to The World quotes Congressman Wise of Virginia, as saying that he did not propose that the newspaper assault upon him by Mayor Lamb, of Norfolk, should pass unnoticed or without giving Mr. Lamb a meeting on the field.

Lewler Ahead.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—The election commissioners completed the official canvass of the return from the Second congressional district Monday evening, the record showing Lewler to have been elected by a plurality of 6 votes.

The President Declines a Degree.

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—President Cleveland has communicated to the authorities of Harvard college his desire that the degree of LL. D. should not be conferred upon him, and consequently it will not be. The president's reason for declining the proposed honor are not stated, but it is known that his action has saved the Harvard authorities from the alternative of appearing to slight the president or of departing from the rule not to confer degrees upon public men, which was inaugurated when Gen. R. B.
Butler was elected governor of Massachusetts.

A Remarkable Case of Insanity.

SALEM, Ill., Nov. 10.—What physicians here call a remarkable case of insanity came before the county court Monday, the person adjudged insane being Joseph McKee, about 7 years old. During the last two months the child has grown violent, and several times attempted to murder his playmates.

Ran Into a Cow.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 10.—The eastbound Nickle-Plate freight train ran into a cow at Foster Tuesday morning and was derailed. The locomotive and eight cars were completely wrecked. Tom Martingale of Cleveland, was killed.

Extradition Proceedings Begun.

MONTREAL, Nov. 10.—Extradition proceedings against John Hoke, defaulter of the Merchant's National bank of Peoria, Ill., to the amount of $100,000 began Monday. The charge against him is forgery.

Kittle being injured internally, while her sister had her jaw and several ribs broken.

Marjorie is under arrest at the Chicago avenue station, Chicago. She was a very ingeniously constructed garment and by the manipulation of certain strings, books, etc., could make four different changes of costume without removing stitch of clothing. One change was to transform a stylish dress, with broad-brimmed hat, into a man's attire, with hood and girdle. The woman is said to be an expert in that confidence operator.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 10.—Gentlemen from Jasper and Clinton counties were in the city Monday with a view of securing active measures to prevent the spread of pneu-in danger of a severe epidemic.
